Mission and Philosophy

Covenant Preparatory School is a small, private, independent, interfaith middle school for boys from low-income families, which provides high-quality education. The School provides an academically challenging and highly structured environment, which develops each student's potential to succeed in competitive secondary schools and colleges. Covenant Prep emphasizes the importance of scholarship, leadership, community service, and social and moral development. It also provides an evening study and tutoring program, weekend field trips to acquaint the students with local cultural, educational, historical and recreational resources, and a mandatory summer session. Covenant Prep admits students without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, lifestyle, ancestry, citizenship, family relationship, or any other appropriate categories protected by law.

Important Dates

- Open Houses take place once a month on Thursday evenings, and attendance is mandatory for each applicant.
- Admissions tests take place the Saturday morning following the Open House.
- Final completed applications are due by March 31.
- A $20 deposit is required upon admittance to Covenant Prep, but will be refunded the first day of school.
- Interviews will be scheduled after the Admissions test is complete and student's application is reviewed.
- New 5th graders will be required to take a summer class at Covenant Prep for the month of July.

Late applications are always accepted, but preference is given to those students whose applications have been completed and received by March 31.
