Parent Statement of Purpose

Please explain below why you hope your son will be able to attend Covenant Preparatory School.

I/We understand that Covenant Preparatory School offers an academically challenging program of studies with a rigorous code of conduct, and that the participation and support of parents or guardians (including attendance at some classes, evening study halls, field trips and other family activities, and at all parent-teacher meetings) are required for the success of the Covenant program. I/We further understand that the school will readmit each year only those students whose record of academic progress and of personal behavior is satisfactory, and whose parents have demonstrated their commitment to the goals of the school.
